Federal Officials Not Planning Arrest of Governor

ARMS TALK NEARING END IN DEADLOCK

London (AP) — The five-power London disarmament talks apparently were as good as over today with the usual lack of agreement. The West and the Russians were even deadlocked over who would take the initiative in ending negotiations.

Another meeting of the U. N. disarmament subcommittee was scheduled today despite the latest Soviet assertion that there was "no room for further discussion" of Western proposals.

That Soviet view was put forward last night at a Russian Embassy news briefing shortly after Valerian Zorin, the Soviet disarmament delegate, again told the subcommittee the Western proposals were not acceptable.

A Soviet spokesman told reporters there was no basis for negotiation in the package plan presented last week by the United States, Britain, France and Canada, the subcommittee's four Western members.

"We are not ready to accept them," he said. "It seems to me there is no room for further discussion of these proposals."

With the 5½-month-old negotiations now tightly deadlocked, the next obvious step was to refer the whole matter back to the parent 12-nation Disarmament Commission in New York and ultimately to the U. N. General Assembly session opening there Sept. 17.

Neither side appeared willing to take the responsibility for bringing the London conference to a close.

The two main features of the West's package disarmament plan call for a two-year moratorium on nuclear weapon tests dependent on a cut-off in atomic production for military purposes, and air and ground inspection against the danger of surprise attack. This would be tied up with cuts in armed forces and conventional arms.

Teamster Leaders Insist Union Not Corruptly Swayed

Washington (AP) — Teamsters Union leaders today denied their union is corruptly dominated. They also said they plan reforms at the union's coming convention.

That was the gist of the union's reply, given to the AFL-CIO ethical Practices Committee, to Federation charges against the truckers.

The Teamsters delegation arrived nearly an hour late for a hearing by the committee.

It was led by the union president, Dave Beck, and the Midwest Teamsters vice president, James R. Hoffa, heir-apparent to Beck as head of the 1½-million-member union.

Beck has announced he will not seek re-election at the union's convention opening Sept. 30 in Miami. Hoffa was accused by the senators of loose handling of union funds and of association with racketeers. He did not invoke the Fifth Amendment when before the committee but repeatedly pleaded that he could not recall events.

Chairman McClellan (D-Ark) finally dismissed Hoffa from the witness chair with the comment that "the witness has no memory."

Floats are being prepared by a number of merchants, Kiwanis Club, the Grange, churches, and others; visiting fire departments

Allocation of Flu Vaccine Is Explained

Washington (AP) — The new Asian flu vaccine will be allocated to the states according to population.

Announcing this last night, the Public Health Service said "a program giving each state and territory its fair share of the vaccine seems to be the most equitable way of distributing the vaccine geographically throughout the country."

The Health Service said the six licensed manufacturers had agreed to this voluntary allocation system as proposed by Surgeon General Leroy E. Burney. The arrangement goes into effect at once.

Venango Man Kills Brother And Suicides

Oil City (AP) — A 50-year-old refinery truck driver wounded his wife last night, killed his 42-year-old brother and then killed himself.

The tragedy occurred in Cherry Tree, a Venango County community six miles from Oil City. It climaxed an argument between the brothers which began last Memorial Day.

The survivor of the shooting, Mrs. Doris Rodgers, about 50, was listed in serious condition today at Oil City Hospital. She was unable to give a coherent account of the shooting which claimed the lives of her husband, Philip, and his brother, Eugene.

State Police Trooper George Dreistadt said Eugene had lived at the home of his older brother until last Memorial Day when Philip ordered him to leave. The officer said Philip's wife carried out her threat to also leave if her brother-in-law left. Since then she had been living at the home of one of her two married daughters, only a short distance from where Eugene set up living quarters in his trailer.

Upon arriving home from work last night, the officer said, Philip took a shotgun and walked to his brother's trailer where he also found his wife. He opened fire and Eugene fell dead instantly.

Mrs. Rodgers also was hit and slumped to the floor. Her husband walked to his home where he placed the shotgun on the floor with the muzzle under his chin. He discharged the weapon by forcing a yardstick upon the trigger. Coroner M. C. Dinberg said the case was clearly "murder and suicide."

Fluoridation Effective Health Officials Say

Geneva (AP) — A report by the World Health Organization says only fluoridation of drinking water can halt tooth decay on a large scale.

The report declared the "effectiveness, safety and practicability of fluoridation as a means of preventing dental caries cavities is now established."

The report was based on a survey of fluoridation programs in 17 countries, some of them in progress more than 12 years.

FRENCH MINE DISASTER
Decazeville, France (AP) — Eight miners died last night when a fire-damp explosion ripped through the 900-foot level of a coal mine at Combes. Twenty five other miners escaped.

FIGHTING IS REPORTED IN CENTRAL CUBA

Havana (AP) — Cuban naval units, joining maritime police and partisans of rebel leader Fidel Castro, were reported today to have attacked and captured police headquarters in the city of Cienfuegos in central Cuba.

Telephone reports to Havana said fighting broke out shortly after dawn and was continuing.

Supporters of Castro were said to be thronging the streets of Cienfuegos shouting "President Batista has fallen." "Government has been taken over by military junta headed by Castro's men."

Reports from Cienfuegos said Police Chief Antonio Ruiz Beltron had refused to surrender his headquarters and ordered police to resist. They added Beltron later was seized by the rebels and his headquarters surrounded.

Cuban army troops stationed in Cienfuegos have made no move to intervene.

An aide to the army commander was reported killed in early shooting.

Cienfuegos' banks and most business establishments were closed. One Cuban there said "all authority has broken down."

A Cuban navy plane was circling Cienfuegos. Navy headquarters in Havana said it had no information of any outbreak in Cienfuegos.

Cienfuegos, a city of 60,000, lies about 200 miles southeast of Havana and is a big port for shipping sugar.

P. U. C. Authorizes Manufacturers To Boost Gas Rates

Harrisburg (AP) — The Manufacturers Light and Heat Co. of Pittsburgh has Public Utility Commission authorization to put into effect an immediate $1,523,477 increase in natural gas rates for 247,000 residential customers.

The commission yesterday lifted a previous suspension of the rate raise in order to "offset the increased cost of purchased gas" paid by the utility. It is continuing another $4,959,600 increase sought by the firm to cover higher costs other than that for purchased gas.

The company will raise rates by 1.9 cents per 1,000 cubic feet.

The additional revenue allowed Manufacturers will be applied to a $1,596,000 hike in its gas costs that went into effect by its suppliers on July 14. If the Federal Power Commission ultimately lowers these changes the utility will have to make corresponding cuts in bills of its customers and refund the difference.

Burglars Take More Than $100 From Route 6 Motel

Cabin-in-the-Pines, a motel and bar about ten miles west of Pittsburgh on Route 6 was burglarized early Wednesday morning and loot amounted to more than $100.

The burglar gained entrance to the building through a jimmied window in the front of the structure sometime after the bar closed at 12:30 a. m. Wednesday.

The culprits were surprised by owner Joseph J. Pondell when he awoke in the next room about 3:30 a. m. They fled into the night, dropping some cigarette cartons and costume jewelry but retaining more than $100 from a jimmied cash register and an undetermined amount of silver from a jimmied juke box and pinball machine.

Sheriff Larry Linder and Chief Deputy Don Allen were called into the case and are pushing their investigation today.

The burglars first tried to gain entrance by jimmying the front door but were stymied when they found themselves only admitted to a vestibule. Then they went to the window.

FARM PRICE INDEX UP

Harrisburg (AP) — The index of prices received by Pennsylvania farmers rose 7 points or 3 per cent during the month ending Aug. 15, federal-state surveys show. The latest report found the increase due to a sharp boost in the prices paid farmers for eggs and hay during the period. The index was 150 per cent of the 1910-14 base level.

Spectacular Display Of Aurora Borealis

Pittsburgh (AP) — Thousands of Pittsburgh residents, along with many in other sections of Pennsylvania, were thrilled last night by a spectacular display of the Northern Lights, known to science as the Aurora Borealis.

In Pittsburgh the display was dimly visible about 10 p. m. and increased in brilliance in the next hour. There was a crescendo of brilliance shortly before midnight.

Scientists here said the lights were related to magnetic storms and also possibly related to a series of brilliant explosions noted on the sun this week by Swedish scientists at an observatory on the Isle of Capri, Italy.

Narcotics Ring Kingpin Gives Self Up Today

New York (AP) — Harry Stromberg, alleged kingpin of a huge international narcotics smuggling ring, surrendered today in the office of U. S. Atty. Paul W. Williams, ending a search by narcotics agents.

Stromberg, alias Nig Rosen, described as a prominent racketeer figure in New York City, Philadelphia and Miami, was among 46 defendants named in a narcotics conspiracy indictment that was opened yesterday in the chambers of U. S. District Judge Edward Weinfeld.

He was tabbed the mastermind of an international narcotics ring netting up to 20 million dollars a year.

In surrendering, the 54-year-old Russian-born Stromberg kept a promise made through an attorney last night. The attorney contacted Williams and made arrangements for the surrender.

Narcotics agents had been searching the city for Stromberg without success.

Stromberg arrived at the federal courthouse accompanied by his attorney and immediately went to the prosecutor's office for questioning.

Arraigned later before Judge Weinfeld, Stromberg pleaded innocent and was released in $20,000 bail.

Chapman Dam Camp Area Bid Awarded to Beyer

Harrisburg (AP) — The General State Authority yesterday received an unofficial low bid of $52,164 from the Beyer Construction Co. for construction of a camping area at Chapman Dam State Park in Warren County.

This amount will be used to further plans which call for increased camping and recreational facilities. At present work is progressing on a fine new swimming beach for next summer. In the vicinity are a beach house and 50-unit trailer parking area.

Daughter of a Former Major League Ball Player Winner of Atlantic City Talent Contest

Atlantic City, N. J. (AP) — Preliminary talent competitions continue today and tomorrow in the Miss America pageant.

The 51 girls representing 45 states, Hawaii, Puerto Rico, Canada, Chicago, New York City and Washington, D. C. were split into three groups of 17 girls yesterday so the 10 judges can see every entrant in all forms of competition.

Two blondes, Miss Arizona and Miss Missouri, won the bathing suit and talent championships last night in the first of three preliminary competitions.

Lynn Frey, 20-year-old junior at the University of Arizona, captivated the judges in her beige and white wool bathing suit. Miss Frey, 36-23-35 and 5 feet 6½, hails from Tucson.

Sara Ann Cooper, 18, of Buckner, Mo., danced her way to the talent championship with a lively interpretation of the Charleston.

Miss Cooper, daughter of Walker Cooper, catcher-coach for the St. Louis Cardinals, wore the traditional garb of the roaring Twenties for her three-minute dance before a convention hall audience of 6,612.

The hazel eyed blonde said her costume was made with the help of her home economics teacher at Fort Osage High School last year.

Point totals in preliminary judging will be used to select 10 semi-finalists Saturday night. The field will then be narrowed to five for the selection of the new beauty queen. The girls can garner additional points for personality through breakfast interviews with judges.

Only the winners of each night's talent and swim suit competitions are announced.

Final Arguments in Libel Trial To Be Started on Friday

By JACK LEFLER

Los Angeles (AP) — The torrent of scandal gushing from the criminal libel trial of Confidential magazine has finally run dry.

Final arguments to the jury will begin tomorrow, the last day of the trial's fifth week in Los Angeles County Superior Court. The case is in recess today.

Probably by the end of next week the jury of six men and six women will begin deliberations. It will be up to them to decide whether Confidential and Whisper magazines, Publisher's Distributing Corp., Fred and Marjorie Meade and their Hollywood Research, Inc., are guilty or innocent of conspiracy to commit criminal libel and to print lewd and obscene matter.

If the jury finds them guilty of a felony, the penalty could range up to three years imprisonment, a fine up to $5,000 or both. If the jury decides the offense is a misdemeanor, the term of imprisonment could be up to one year in jail and the fine up to $1,000.

The dominant issue of the trial was the story about actress Maureen O'Hara making love in a Hollywood theater true?—persisted to the very end.

U. S. Airmen Highly Praise Russia's TU104

By RELMAN MORIN

McGuire Air Force Base, N. J. (AP) — Russia is bidding for a commercial airline agreement with the United States and American airmen expressed unstinted admiration today for the Soviet jet transport that has made the trip from Moscow.

The TU104, silvery, big-bodied and powerful, set down at McGuire Air Force Base last night, the first Russian passenger airliner ever to land in the United States.

Promptly, highly placed Soviet official read a prepared statement from the steps of the ramp:

"Let this flight be the beginning of regular flights between the Soviet Union and the United States," he said. "Hail to the friendship of the Soviet and American peoples."

By special agreement, the TU104 brought 40 people—mainly members of the Russian delegation to the United Nations—across the 5,570-mile route from Moscow to the Air Force base in New Jersey.

The twin-jet liner, delayed by bad weather and refueling stops, took a total elapsed time of 21 hours, 54 minutes. Crewmen fixed the actual flying time at just over 13½ hours.

The Russians say they have other jet liners, bigger than the TU104, that will fly nonstop from Moscow to New York.

Nearly 500 people, newsmen, photographers, air force personnel and Russian officials, braved two sharp flurries of rain to see the big Soviet transport come in.

Former Bradford Man Given Long Jail Term

Smethport (AP) — A former securities dealer who operated out of Bradford today began serving a 21-month sentence in McKean County Jail for a variety of charges involving stock transactions.

William T. Bowler, 37, pleaded guilty yesterday to eight different charges before Judge Charles G. Hubbard. He also was ordered to make restitution of $67,749.

Separate grand juries last February and June indicted Bowler on charges of larceny by bailee, embezzlement by broker or agent, fraudulent conversion, and technical violations of the Pennsylvania Securities Act.

PRESIDENTIAL SECRETARY DENIES RUMORS LAUNCHED BY MESSAGE FROM FAUBUS

By MARVIN ARROWSMITH

Newport, R. I. (AP) — President Eisenhower's headquarters said today it is "not correct" that federal authorities have discussed the possibility of taking Gov. Orval Faubus of Arkansas into custody in the Little Rock school integration case.

"That rumor is not correct," said White House press secretary James C. Hagerty in commenting on a telegram Faubus sent to the President last night.

Hagerty also said there is no truth to what he called another report "to the effect that U. S. marshals or their deputies have been ordered to escort Negro children to school" in Little Rock.

In his telegram to Eisenhower the Arkansas governor said he had been "reliably informed that federal authorities in Little Rock have this day been discussing plans to take into custody by force the head of a sovereign state."

Faubus urged the President to see that no effort is made toward any such action.

Asked whether there had been any discussion by federal authorities in Washington or anywhere else about the possibility of trying to take Faubus into custody, Hagerty replied:

"There has been no discussion in Little Rock or Washington or any place else."

Eisenhower arrived here from Washington yesterday for the start of an extended vacation mixed with work. He got a new report regarding the situation in Little Rock before going this morning to the Newport Country Club for a round of golf.

Hagerty told a news conference the Faubus telegram to Eisenhower was delivered to the White House in Washington at 1:15 a. m. today—after the governor had made it public.

Hagerty noted the Washington delivery time and added "we have a rule" under which the President personally does not reply to telegrams or letters that have been made public before they reach him.

The press secretary said he did not know for sure whether that rule would be followed in this case. But he did say, in reply to a question, that in any event Faubus will get a reply—if not from the President himself, from an aide.

Eisenhower and his wife, still convalescing from surgery she underwent Aug. 6, are at a vacation White House at the U. S. Naval Base on Coaster Harbor Island, situated in Narragansett Bay just west of historic Newport.

A bit later, he put vacation plans aside for a time and conferred by telephone with Atty. Gen. Brownell, in Washington, on the halting of integration at Little Rock.

James C. Hagerty, White House press secretary, said later that Brownell was "under orders" to keep Eisenhower abreast of developments there.

Lightning Blamed for Starting Mountain Fire

Mount Union (AP) — Lightning during a Labor Day thunderstorm is blamed by a state forester for starting a fire atop Black Log Mountain near Orbisonia, about 10 miles south of Mount Union.

Walter D. Ludwig of Loysville, Tuscarora district forester for the Forests and Waters Department, said no one could figure out any other way the flames could have been touched off on the top of the mountain. He said 75 men fought the blaze since it was discovered Tuesday afternoon. He estimated it covered 30 acres of rocky ground in an extremely inaccessible location. The site was a one-hour hike from the nearest roads.

Henry reported that the action is designed to make service with the state police more in line with civilian occupations and give married personnel an opportunity to spend more time with their families.

"However, the extra time off will be governed entirely by the troop commanders," Henry explained. "The reason is obvious: We never know what emergency will arise."

Henry said there was no written directive issued "because in a discretionary case like this we don't like to spell it out on paper."

He said the directive was issued in a conference recently with troop commanders.

During their free time the troopers will be on duty technically subject to recall on short notice.

Harrisburg (AP) — Col. Earl J. Henry, state police commissioner, said today all the uniformed and civilian personnel of the department will be inoculated against Asian flu.

Col. Henry said he decided on the action on the recommendation of Dr. Berwyn F. Mattison, health secretary.

State Plans To Issue Wallet-Size Birth Certificate Copies

By BOB HOLTON

Harrisburg (AP) — The state soon will make it simpler for Pennsylvanians to settle, on the spot, arguments about age or place of birth.

In about two weeks the Bureau of Vital Statistics expects to begin issuing wallet-size copies of birth certificates.

Copies now issued by the Commonwealth are about nine inches long and six inches wide. The new ones will be about the size of a driver's license.

"We have purchased about $600 worth of printing machinery and plastic on which to imprint the wallet-size birth certificates and we expect delivery in time to issue such certificates on Sept. 16," said Dr. Albert E. Bailey.

Dr. Bailey heads the Statistics and Records Division of the Health Department.

A new law effective last Sunday authorizes the smaller certificates.

"All you have to do is send a dollar by check or money order to the division and a request for the certificate," Dr. Bailey explained.

"Under the old law and even now until we start issuing the certificates only the regular-sized certificates will be legal in Pennsylvania," he warned. The state will continue to supply the larger certificates at the same $1 price.

Building Permits Totalling $53,740 Are Granted in July

In keeping with recent national developments, proposed building construction in Pennsylvania during July demonstrated a mixed trend. Estimated valuation of all types of building construction in 556 Pennsylvania permit-issuing municipalities during July rose 17.8 per cent above the June reports from the same communities. However, the number of permits issued declined 2.8 per cent for the period.

Compilation of reports from these municipalities listed 9,220 permits with $77,215,299 as the estimated cost of the projects authorized in July. During the previous month, $9,487 permits for new construction were issued representing a dollar volume of $65,569,310.

In Warren County during the 61-day period, permits totalling $53,740 were issued, with $8,300 of this amount headed for new dwelling units. In Youngsville, $3,000 of building permits were issued.

A decline in all forms of residential building, except tourist cabins, was indicated by the July permit reports. Significant dollar reductions were disclosed for one-family housekeeping dwellings from $33,109,470 planned in June to $29,802,573 proposed in July. The intended construction of apartments also experienced a reduction in dollar volume. Measured in dollars, total planned construction of new housekeeping dwellings amounted to $30,653,573 in July.

The linen consisted of both striped and solid color Cannon sheets and pillow cases, a dozen each of all size Cannon Turkish towels, as well as Cannon tea towels, holders and large size bath towels.

against $34,491,500 for June.

A 62.8 per cent increase in proposed non-residential construction more than compensated for the decline in residential building. In terms of dollars the permit reports indicated an increase from $20,829,640 in June to $33,914,787 in July. Proposed construction of new schools accounted for $15,077,408, or 44.5 per cent, of the July total. At the same time it represented an increase in planned new school construction to a dollar level four and one half times as great as that proposed during the previous month. Large gains were recorded also in the proposed construction of office buildings, public garages, churches and factory buildings. Of interest is the fact that amusement and recreation places, institutions, public buildings, and stores and other mercantile establishments showed significant declines in this non-residential building category.

Officers Elected At Annual Meeting Of Cancer Society

Donald R. Watkins, M. D., of Bradford, when speaking before the annual meeting of the Warren County Unit, American Cancer Society, chose for his topic, "The Present Status of Lung Cancer". He spoke of the symptoms and causes attributed to lung cancer and discussed the controversial subject, cigarettes vs. lung cancer. An interesting question and answer period followed his address.

Dr. John W. Larson was elected to serve another year as president of the Society and to serve with him; James Wright, vice president; Mrs. Raymond Rapp, secretary and A. L. Rasmussen, treasurer.

Members of the board of directors who were re-elected to serve a three year term are: Dr. Homer H. Lewis, Jr., Robert Jones, Dr. L. E. Chapman, Ed C. Lowrey, Miss Olive G. Phillips, A. L. Rasmussen, Miss Dorothy Baker and Mrs. Raymond Rapp.

The following new members were added to the board: Dr. Donald L. Creed, Joseph Passaro, Miss Martha McCrea, James Wright, Frank W. Perrin and Edgar B. Pendleton.

Dr. John Larson, president, presented this year's Certificate of Merit to the Catholic Daughters of America Senior Study Group for the exceptional work in the dressings program. The group has made 835 disposable pads since starting this project. Mrs. George Cunningham, project leader, accepted the certificate on behalf of the group.

For outstanding service to the cause of cancer control during the Society's annual crusade, Dr. Larson presented the personally engraved Sword Trophy Award to James Wright, chairman; to Frank W. Perrin, co-chairman and Edgar B. Pendleton, borough chairman, each the Etched Brass Plaque Award.

Artfully framing shock imagery against poetic narration, the film, "The Other City", a modern parable that treats of an age old conflict—Man vs. Nature—was shown by David Potter.

Dr. Larson introduced Dr. Donald L. Creed, new pathologist at the Warren General Hospital and Joseph A. Williamson, administrator.

Sylvania Announces General Wage Hike For 27,000 Workers

New York — Sylvania Electric Products Inc., has announced a general wage and salary increase of 3 per cent for its more than 27,000 employees under a program which has added nearly $16 million to the company's annual payroll since August, 1955.

The increase, which is effective September 1, 1957, equals from 5 to 8 cents an hour for hourly employees.

The program was negotiated locally by Sylvania and local Lodge No. 993 of the International Association of Machinists—AFL-CIO.

Cole H. Pilcher, Sylvania's director of industrial relations, said the increase is the third of a three-year schedule of general pay increases that originally became effective on August 29, 1955.

Annual increases under the plan have boosted wages and salaries more than 10 percent above the 1955 levels, Mr. Pilcher reported. This equals from 15 to 29 cents an hour for hourly employees.

In addition to the general pay increases, cost-of-living provisions of the program have resulted in additional pay increases amounting to about 3½ per cent of the 1955 pay level.

Mr. Pilcher said that since Aug. 1955, general pay increases under

HATS OFF DEPARTMENT

This is the time of the year when we are moved to say a word of praise for officials of the Warren Hot Stove League, including officers, managers, coaches, umpires, players and last of all the spectators, all of whom combined to give the community another most successful season of sport for youngsters of the area.

It is a fine compliment to the officers, present and past, to remind that this year a record number of boys participated in the League activities, with the greatest number of teams yet enrolled in any one season.

Deserving of special praise are the men who labored long and hard to keep League affairs functioning smoothly. Considering the large number of adults and children involved, this is no small task. The unsung umpires are entitled to commendation, and we are especially indebted to the score keepers who reported game results to the Times-Mirror throughout the season.

Highlight of the season again this year was the All-Star contest staged as a benefit for the Kiwanis fund for Underprivileged Children, which, according to all reports, was an unequalled success due to the untiring efforts of officials of both the League and the Club.

It is encouraging to note that the benefits of the League activities may be reflected next year in a City League baseball team with four or six teams composed mostly of players who have "moved up" from Hot Stove clubs.

SECOND THE MOTION!

Most readers will sigh a hearty amen to the following editorial from The Bradford Era, printed under the heading "For Lower Blood Pressure":

With few exceptions, most of us live in a world of considerable pressure these days. The problems of life are varied and the time to take care of all our responsibilities is often short.

As a result, most people look forward to relaxing and refreshing sleep that "knits up the raveled sleeve of care."

What is more disturbingly unnecessary than all kinds of needless, pointless noises to rouse you from your restful slumbers. Harsh, sleep-destroying noises like car horns screaming "hello" or "good bye," dogs allowed to bark incessantly by people who claim to be "dog-lovers," loud, strident conversation; screaming radio, TV or record machines—they all upset us.

One question:

Why can't we all be more considerate of others and bottle up needless noise?

PASSION PLAY LOVED BY CHILDREN

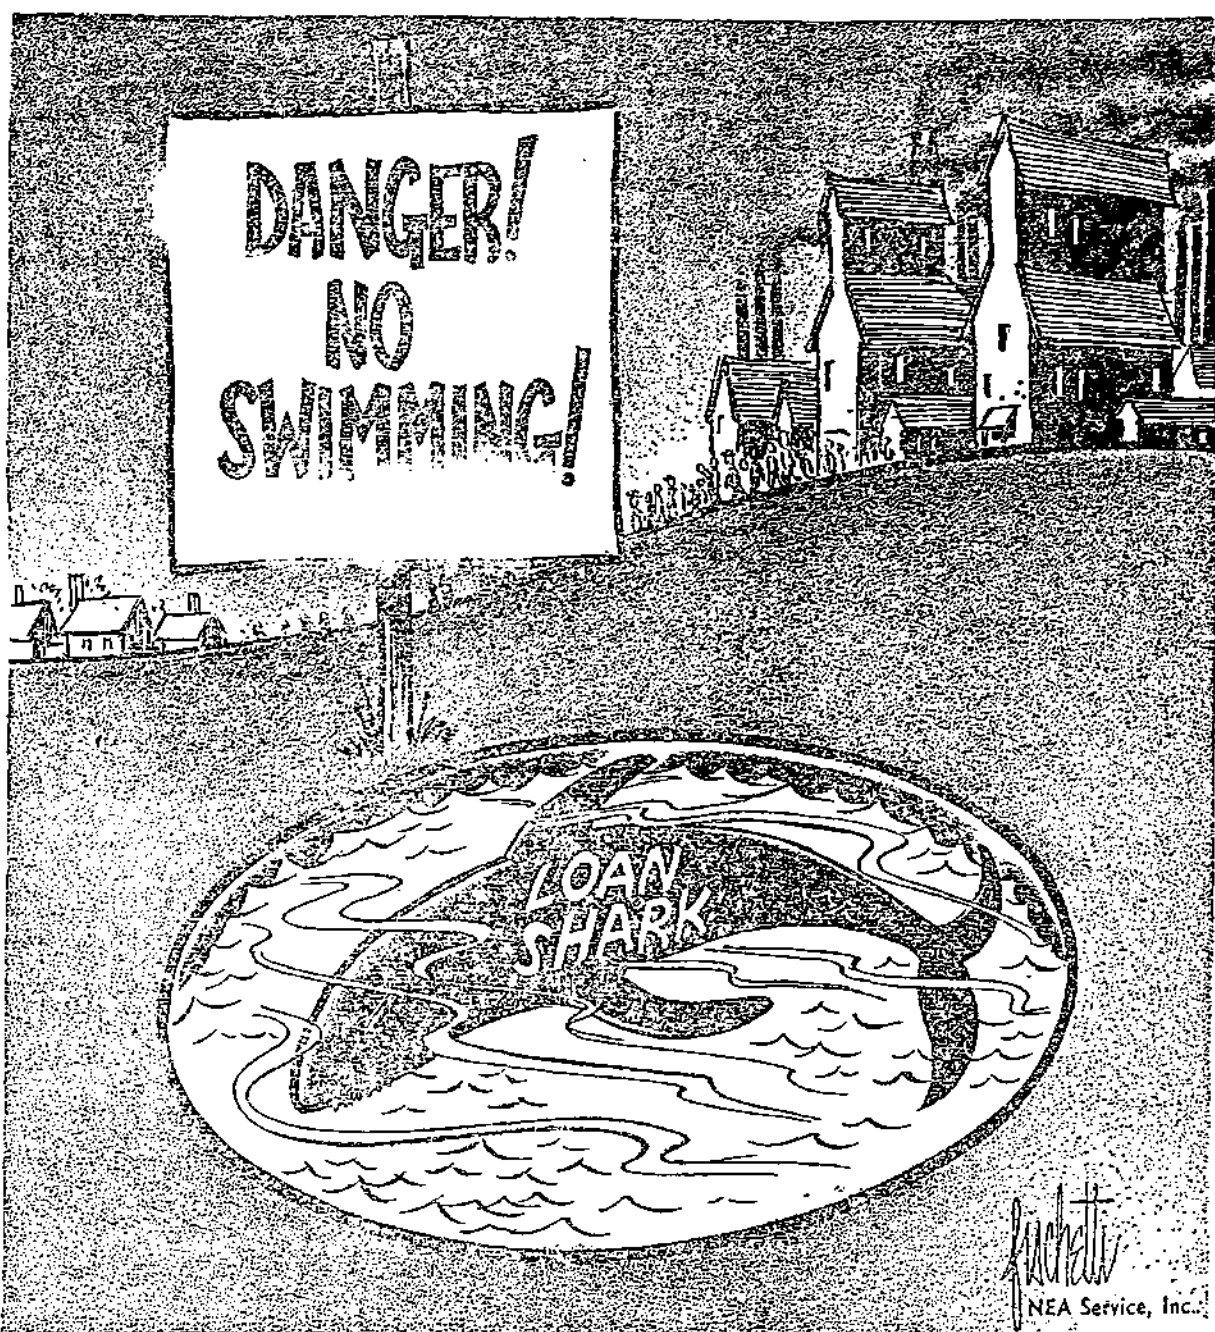

Val Balfour, The Christus of the famed Oberammergau Passion Play which appears at Beatty Junior High School Auditorium September 8th, 9th, and 10th, finds his greatest pleasure in the performances given for children.

The settings of the Oberammergau Passion Play which includes The Temple, Bethany, The Last Supper, Pilate's Palace, The Mount of Olives, Golgotha, and the tomb, give in two and one-half hours a more complete understanding of this vital period than the most careful teaching and story-telling can accomplish in years. In effect, it is a fine form of visual education.

Children become immediately interested in the action of the Passion Play. They sit quietly and become as deeply engrossed in the story as do adults.

Student matinees at a special price will be held on Monday and Tuesday afternoons, September 9th and 10th. The four adult performances of the production will be given Sunday afternoon at 2:15, and Sunday, Monday and Tuesday evenings at 8:15. Reserved seat tickets for these performances are now on sale at Passion Play Headquarters, Columbia Theatre Lobby, Warren, Pennsylvania. However, it should be remembered that the show is presented in Beatty Auditorium.

No Matter How Hot It Gets

Here and There

The facts in the following story are vouched for by a well known and civic-minded citizen who is a frequent visitor to the editorial rooms of the Times-Mirror, especially when he has news of interest to report:

"While taking a boat ride on Conewango Creek at the Sechrist Camp Labor Day, Mrs. Web Sechrist and Nancy Wickstrom were startled and to say the least chagrined when a thud was heard in the back of their water-going vessel. As Miss Wickstrom looking at the bottom of the boat, could scarcely believe her eyes, for in her presence was a large bass, wriggling and cavorting, which had jumped out of the water right into the boat, and was making its way toward the front—and Mrs. Sechrist. Arriving back at the dock in front of the camp, they met the rest of the party, who were loathe to believe their story in full until further proof from some fisherman who witnessed the spectacle and corroborated it."

None other than our old friend and former associate, Rell Hoskings, sends in this account of the annual get-together at Hackney Meadows last week:

"Hackney Meadows neighbors joined together, Saturday night, for their annual reunion and elected Carl W. Asplund to succeed E. R. 'Plut' Samuelson as mayor of the little summer community along the Conewango. Mayor Asplund was presented with the traditional scroll and key by the outgoing official, and Harry Schmidt gave Mrs. Asplund a beautiful pin on behalf of the group. Miss Marian Root presented plans for a perpetual memorial to Mrs. Amanda Gaudier, who passed away a few months ago and who was always known as the good neighbor of Hackney Meadows. Numerous chickens were barbecued for the annual feast, which was further enhanced by the usual delectable tureens provided by the good wives of the little colony. Among those present were Mr. and Mrs. Harold D. Eaker and son, Mr. and Mrs. Leo D. Gibson, Eileen and Tom Gibson, Mr. and Mrs. Bert Werlin and family, Mr. and Mrs. James Geary, Mr. and Mrs. Norman Arnold, Mr. and Mrs. Willis Wineriter, Mr. and Mrs. William Anderson, Mr. and Mrs. E. R. Samuelson and sons, Mrs. Alice Wineriter, Mrs. Rhea Brennan, Miss Marian Root, Mr. and Mrs. Harry Schmidt and sons, Clifford Kammer, and Mr. and Mrs. Carl Asplund."

It's back-to-school for 2,400,000 Pennsylvania students this week and that "adds up to just 2,400,000 reasons why every driver in the Commonwealth should be alert and considerate every moment he is operating his automobile," O. D. Shipley, director of the Bureau of Highway Safety reminds. "These children will be walking or riding to our public, parochial and private schools and it is the obligation and responsibility of every driver to be extra cautious," Mr. Shipley says. "All too often, these youngsters forget or ignore the rules of safety and it's up to each to be on the lookout for them. No driver can afford to forget safety when the life of a child—perhaps his own—may be at stake."

The Safety Director also reminds motorists that 1 out of every 4 of Pennsylvania's school children rides to classes in a bus. The 1957 Legislature added a severe penalty to the law affecting motorists who illegally pass a stopped school bus. Under the new act such a violation may bring a ten day jail term in lieu of a $25 to $50 fine. The School Bus Law also provides that vehicles traveling in either direction, on two or three lane highways must stop when a school bus is loading or discharging passengers. Vehicles traveling on a four lane divided highway must stop when overtaking a stopped school bus, while vehicles approaching in the opposite lane must slow down to 15 m.p.h. in passing the school bus.

THE COUNTERPART FUNDS—which are also in foreign currencies—come from the sale of American aid products by foreign countries to their own nationals. These funds are then frozen for further development projects within each country. About 90 per cent of these funds—the equivalent of over a billion U.S. dollars—therefore rightfully belongs to the countries in which they are held.

The Mature Parent

Telling 'All' to Our Tots Is a Childish Impulse

BY MRS. MURIEL LAWRENCE

WHEN Greg was first told his parents were going to have a baby, he showed no interest. In was clear he regarded their news as just another one of those hopelessly mysterious adult decisions which it's silly for children to even try to understand.

However, a couple of days later when his mother was undressing him for bed, he suddenly asked, "What's this baby doing now? Where are you going to get it?"

Now all his mother needed to say was, "It's growing inside of me now. When it's big enough, it will let me know and get itself born." But instead of giving him this casual, simple answer, she sank down on his bed—and began an anxious, long-winded explanation of the physiology of birth.

WHY do some of us feel it necessary to give children more sex information than they ask for? Well, I think our talkativeness is a holdover from our childhood when we rushed to tell Mommy "everything" lest she imagine we'd been up to something naughty.

I think that some of us do feel a little naughty when we are required to tell our first child how we begot our second one. We become defensive, not only because we're forcing displacement on him, but because that displacement is the result of our sexual activity. So when Greg asks us how we're getting the new baby, we feel pretty much the way we felt when Mommy used to say, "Who tore up that book?"

WE'RE as anxious to retain his good opinion of our innocent intentions as we were to retain Mommy's.

Let's watch this childish impulse to tell "everything" to small sons and daughters.

It's part of the American parent's fear of claiming any privacy for himself. If we don't get on to this fear early, it can betray us, not only by making us overtalk sex too soon to children, but by making us uncomfortable with any experience we can't share with them. It can do all kinds of destructive things to us, from keeping us at home every night when we would be seeing our friends, to neglect of our retirement plans.

We've no more right to try to share everything with children than we have to demand that they share everything with us.

Wives Preoccupied With Children Fail Husbands

"WE seem to have so little in common now that the children are grown."

If young wives only knew how often that admission crops up in letters to this column from middle-aged wives, it might make them see what a mistake it is for a woman to "live for her children."

A young wife doesn't use the old-fashioned term, "living for her children," when she falls into the habit of always putting them first.

But that is exactly what she is doing—living for her children and through her children, being first a mother and then a wife.

And the years pass by and one day—sooner than she can ever realize it will happen—the children are grown and gone from home. There is no one left but husband and wife.

TOO LATE

AND because about all that she has thought, talked, or planned for through the years has concerned the children, the couple find they have little left in common.

And who does the wife blame for that sad and depressing state of affairs? Herself?

No, she blames her husband. Somehow she had always expected that when she finally got around to having time for him he would be eager and ready to begin to build a new kind of life with her. Instead she finds that he has grown accustomed to going his own way, finding companionship away from home.

The wife who is too preoccupied with her children almost always finds that her husband is too busy to bother with being a companion to her once the children are grown.

Gathered From The Party Line

Mr. and Mrs. Amil Erickson and son, John, of Roy street, have returned from a pleasant motor trip which took them to Youngstown, through the states of Ohio, Indiana and Illinois, across the Mississippi River into Iowa, then up to Wisconsin, and home by way of the Great Lakes, stopping en route to view many places of interest.

It will interest many to be reminded that Mrs. Gene Sackett, who will come here next week as wife of the new pastor at Bethel Evangelical United Brethren church, is no stranger to Warren. She is the former Shirley Smith, who taught kindergarten classes at Jefferson School the first term the new building was opened for use.

Attention of LeRoy Schneek, self-styled gourmet, is called to announcement of the third annual Fancy Foods and Confectionery Show at the Shearson-Astor Hotel in New York, when the Japanese seat, among other tidbits, chocolate covered ants, barbecued sparrows on spits, and salted cherry blossoms, and from Australia came kangaroo tail soup, a great delicacy in the country down under.

Susan Crossett, 201 East street, and John H. Lewis, Pleasant Drive, were among students enrolled for the summer session of University of Colorado, at Boulder.

Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Olowin and children, Renee and Kenneth, of Clarendon, recently returned from a trip to Florida, where they visited their family and friends.

Among 21 Latin American educators studying at the Pennsylvania State University and assigned to six-week teaching internships in Pennsylvania and New York this fall is Filomeno Ceballos, of Panama, who will come to Sheffield to work under Tom Baratt, who moves from assistant principal at Beatty Junior High to a new post as supervising principal in the nearby town.

Mary Rose Gagliardi, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Gagliardi, 116 Cayuga avenue, arrived Sunday night from Harrison, N. Y. where for the past three months she affiliated at St. Vincent's Hospital. After spending a month's vacation with her family and friends, she will return to Mercy Hospital, Buffalo, N. Y., to complete her last year of nursing training.

RELIGIOUS CLASSES

Religious classes for children of St. Joseph's church will open Saturday, 10:00 to 11:30 a. m. this instruction to include all children in the parish from first through eighth grades of the public schools. As in former years, a chartered bus will leave Warren at 8:30 a. m. to transport youngsters from the outlying districts to the school.

LADIES' AUXILIARY

Ashley — Flora Wiltse entertained the Ladies' Auxiliary of Hale Cemetery Association at her home in Gouldtown, with President Myrtle Nelson in charge of the session and Grace Granquist conducting devotions. It was decided to have a dinner in October, plans to be made at the next meeting, with Sylvia Erickson and Martha Batton, the last Friday in September.

Harland McAllisters Observe Anniversary

Youngstown—Mr. and Mrs. Harland McAllister, Marsh avenue, observed their silver wedding anniversary from 2:00 to 5:00 p. m. Sunday in St. Francis' parish house, the happy event arranged by their children, Mr. and Mrs. Alan McAllister, Mr. and Mrs. Richard Littlefield, and Richard McAllister.

The rooms were beautifully decorated with pink and white glads, pink carnations, white mums, white streamers, silver and white bells. A three-tier cake topped with a "25" centered the table and was cut by Mrs. Llewellyn Gibson, Warren, sister of Mrs. McAllister.

Marjorie McAllister, sister of Mr. McAllister, poured coffee, Mrs. Wade Ransom presided at the punch bowl; another sister of Mr. McAllister, Mrs. Gerald Watson from Ironton, O., served ice cream, and her daughter, Nancy, was in charge of the guest book.

Mrs. McAllister received a white orchid from the family, and Mr. McAllister, a white boutonniere. Aides were remembered with white carnation corsages, with the exception of Mrs. Gibson, who wore a large white mum because she had been the bridesmaid 25 years ago.

The honored couple received many lovely gifts and money, and the 100 friends and relatives who attended the open house testified to the loving esteem in which they are held.

Out of town guests were present from Buffalo, Annapolis, Md.; Portsmouth, N. H.; Ironton, O.; Erie and Warren.

On September 12, 1932, Dorothy E. Johnson, of Warren, and Harland McAllister, Youngstown, were married by the Rev. Alfred Randall in the Jamestown parsonage, with her sister, Alva Johnson, as bridesmaid and Clayford Blomgren as best man.

Their three children are all living and they have one grand-daughter, Julie, born three months ago to Mr. and Mrs. Alan McAllister of Annapolis.

The celebrants have lived in Youngstown since their marriage. He has been manager of Farm Service for the past two years, having been a National Forge employee for 15 years prior to this time.

LETTERS TO EDITOR

Sept. 4, 1957.

Ed Lowrey, Editor, Times-Mirror.

Dear Sir:

I would like to express my gratitude to the JayCees for bringing the Oberammergau Passion Play to Warren so that my family will all have the privilege of seeing it.

Recently we had a visitor from out of town (a former Warrenite) who had seen this wonderful play abroad many years ago and she was astonished when we mentioned the fact that it was coming here.

Asked how she liked it she said, "It was wonderful and if you have the opportunity to see it—don't miss it. One thing nice about it too is the fact that it is for all faiths."

I hope other parents will feel as I do about this project—thanks and good luck to the local JayCees for their latest endeavor to bring something unusual to Warren.

ONE GRATEFUL MOTHER

Warren, Sept. 5, 1957

Editor Times-Mirror:

May I suggest as a solution to the problem confronting automobile owners who will be looking for parking places when new regulations are enforced on the east side of Market street, that there is a New Area Parking Lot at the foot of Liberty street, back of the Pickett store, where reserved parking may be had 24 hours a day for the low cost of $1.00 a week. Most of the motorists who have been parking all day on Market street are employed or have business interests in the downtown section. The new lot is just as close as Market street, and has a capacity of 250 cars at least. The parking problem in or near the downtown section is not quite as serious as your editorial Wednesday would have motorists believe.

The Rattling Skeleton

By JOSEPH ALSOP

WARSAW the entire bloodstained period of Soviet history from the Revolution

How many skeletons are going to come rattling out of how many closets in Moscow? The dead, dismembered bones of Marshall Tukhashevsky have now been suddenly exposed to public view, for the honor due to the relics of a hero of the Soviet Union. But will it end there?

These grisly but absorbing questions are posed by one of the most curiously fascinating items behind-the-scenes information about the Soviet Union that this sporter has run across in a very long time. It is solid information, so, coming from a highly-reputable Polish leader who talked at length with the responsible Soviet officials directly concerned.

One of the sequels of the Soviet's famous Twentieth Party Congress was an extraordinary order for a scientific and impartial review of all the political condemnations in tal of the world revolution and married a Russian woman in Moscow.

To Professor Kim were handed over all the super-secret files having to do with political trials in the possession of both the Communist Party and the Soviet secret police. Incredibly enough, it turned out that from the days of the terrible Cheka onwads, hardly a single scrap of paper in the entire ghastly record had ever been destroyed. Every note, every affidavit, every instruction, every confession and pseudo-confession and verdict had been filed away with truly Teutonic efficiency. And the files were completely intact!

In addition to the files, there were ghostly but still articulate survivors. Frightful though the purges were, not everyone was sent to the firing squad. In each group of victims of this Soviet society that eats its children, there were always minor personalities who were condemned, perhaps not mercifully, to the living death of the prison camps. A good many of these are still alive. Professor Kim and his large staff of young, historical students have been tracking down the poor ghosts and interrogating them about the cases in which they were involved.

Obviously, Professor Kim and his staff cannot have completed one-tenth or even one-twentieth of their huge and gruesome task. Obviously, too, the publication of Professor Kim's results is likely to be selective, to say the very least. For instance, will Bukharin and the other "rightist deviationists," who were purged for opposing agricultural collectivization, be admitted to the left of rehabilitated skeletons? It seems highly unlikely now. But who can foresee the future?

Meanwhile, the preparation for the rehabilitation of Marshal Tukhashevsky is presumably a first fruit of the professor's labors as well as a startling and vastly significant indication of the Red Army's enormously increased influence on Soviet politics. Marshal Tukhashevsky, almost beyond doubt, has always been secretly revered by Marshall Zhukov, who is his heir.

Even more than Leon Trotsky, Tukhashevsky deserves the credit for organizing the Red Army that Zhukov now leads in one sense. Tukhashevsky was a victim of Adolf Hitler. Hitler's intelligence service prepared the documents exaggerating the long and close relationship between the Soviet and German General Staffs in a way that seemed to indicate a plot against Stalin and his state. These documents were then allowed to fall into the hands of President Benes of Czechoslovakia. Benes forwarded them with a covering personal note to Stalin himself. In the ensuing hecatomb, not only Tukhashevsky but also Dalen-Bucher, the great organizer of the defenses of Eastern Siberia, and virtually all the rest of the Red Army High Command went to their deaths. So much is known.

But there are also highly reliable indications that the atmosphere for the hecatomb of the High Command was prepared in another way. Being a wholly peasant army in those days, the Red Army was gravely demoralized by Stalin's wholesale massacre of the Russian peasantry Tukhashevsky and the other Marshalls are believed to have warned Stalin very bluntly, therefore, that he must call a halt to the blood baths of collectivization.

Will it now be shown that the Marshalls were foredoomed, even before Hitler laid his trap, by challenging Stalin's omnipotence on the very same point that doomed Bukharin? This is only one of the crucial puzzles of the Soviet past that will perhaps be solved by Professor Kim's assignment, which is in any case an assignment without previous parallel in recorded history.

Representative Gavin Pleads Case of Those Over 65 Years

On Wednesday, Aug. 28, with adjournment just two days away, Congressman Leon H. Gavin pleaded the cause of men and women who are 65 years of age. He referred to the billions Congress is granting for foreign aid, and asked that "charity begin at home."

His remarks printed in the Congressional Record of Thursday, August 29, follow:

"Mr. Speaker, in the past several weeks we have discussed legislation that would give our country authority to spend some $3 billion presumably to aid and assist foreign nations. We provide this assistance on the theory that it will better the economic condition of friends abroad and thus strengthen the democratic way of life as contrasted with communism throughout the world.

"Certainly we all want to help friendly nations, and as good neighbors it is well that we give attention to their needs. We have been most generous in the past on matters of economic and military aid to promote peace and stability throughout the world. While today our thoughts are centered on how we can help foreign nations help themselves, I cannot help but feel that we have some home problems that need attention. Concentrating on poverty abroad to the exclusion of our own needy just does not make sense to me. Charity begins at home.

"I am thinking particularly of the plight of certain of our aged folks. We have in this country some 14 million who are 65 years and over. About 2½ million of these are on old-age assistance, where their average monthly pension is less than $60 a month—these are our unfortunate and needy elders—they are not on social security nor do they have retirement. They have to depend upon this dole of $60 or less to keep themselves alive from one month to the next.

"It is obvious that no one can live in health and decency on this pittance. I hate to think of this session of Congress coming to a close without doing something about this home problem. It involves 2½ million of our very own senior citizens. You do not have to go around the world to extend aid to humankind; it is needed right here in our own country.

"During the coming year let us do a little soul searching and see if we cannot come up with something better for these old folks, at least in partial keeping with what we are about to do for foreign peoples throughout the world."

Questions and Answers
Q—In connection with my disability compensation, I requested the added amount allowed for dependents, and VA asked me to submit evidence of the birth of my child. What kind of evidence would VA want?

A—VA would prefer a certified copy or abstract of the public record of birth, or a certified copy of the church record of baptism.

Q—Since I have been totally and permanently disabled for six months, I applied to VA for waiver of premiums of my GI insurance policy. May I stop paying premiums now?

A—No. You should continue to pay premiums regularly, until you receive notice from VA that your application for waiver has been granted. All premiums paid after the effective date of the waiver will be refunded to you.

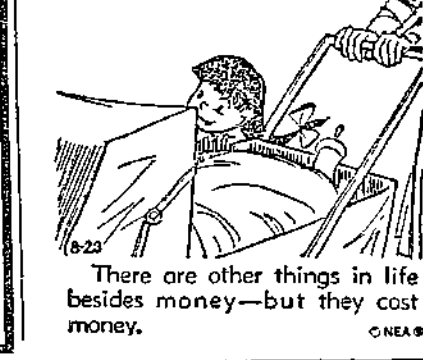

Q—I am the widow of a World War II veteran who died of a service-connected condition. I understand I am eligible for a GI loan. I live in an area where direct VA loans have been authorized. Could I get a direct loan, or are they limited only to veterans, and not to widows of veterans?

A—You would be eligible for a direct VA loan, so long as you live in an area where direct loans have been authorized.

Q—I want to sell my GI house. Do I need VA's consent to sell, if the GI loan is not being paid off?

A—You do not need VA's consent to sell your property. However, if you wish to be released from liability, you must apply to VA.

Youngsville EUB Church Pleased in Return of Pastor

Youngsville—The EUB Conference at Findley Lake was largely attended Sunday by members of the local congregation, which is highly pleased to have its pastor, the Rev. F. Eugene Donelson, returned for another year.

Mr. Donelson acted as chairman of the committee on evangelism and brought that report Saturday afternoon. He was also reelected to the judicial committee for a term of four years. The lay delegate, Ed Nelson, also served on one of the committees.

One of the conference highlights was the banquet Friday night for ministers and wives, with Mrs. Charles Kinney of Warren First Church as toastmaster and the new bishop, the Rev. J. Gordon Howard honored.

The Rev. Wayne Hogue, ordained Sunday morning, was appointed associate pastor at Erie Glenwood, where the Rev. Harold Lindquist, formerly of Youngsville, is minister.

Pre-School Mothers' Club will hold its first meeting at 8:00 p. m. Monday in the school cafeteria. A toy party will be a feature, proceeds going to the club treasury, and refreshments will be served.

Mrs. Russell Smith, Garland was hostess to Past Matrons of Eastern Star, for a six o'clock dinner. Later, canasta was played. Present from Youngsville were Mrs. R. L. Mead, Mrs. Mabel Chipman, Mrs. John Carr, Sr., Mrs. Ernest Johnson, Mrs. James Shippe, Mrs. Arthur Streeter, Mrs. Lonnie Halfast, and Mrs. William Clark.

Mrs. Armour Johnson had as guests over the weekend her parents.

Mr. and Mrs. A. O. Hager, Lake-wood, Mrs. James Simmons and son, Mark, Venice, Calif., Mr. and Mrs. E. L. Johnson, Jamestown, and Mrs. Anna Negus, Ft. Pierce, Fla., were guests of Mrs. R. L. Mead over the long weekend.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Adameck and children, Erie, visited her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Warren Jones, over the weekend.

1st Quarter Sales Tax More Than $600 Means Firms Must File Monthly

The Bureau of Sales and Use Tax reminds all licensed taxpayers that only those firms which collected more than $600 the first quarter of 1957—January, February, March—are required to report and remit on a monthly basis. All other business firms which collected less than $600 the first quarter continue to report and remit on a quarterly basis.

The Bureau's clarifying announcement followed receipt of a large number of prematurely filed monthly returns and payments on unofficial forms by business firms in the group required to report quarterly.

Official report forms covering these taxpayers will be mailed soon by the Bureau covering the third quarter—July, August, September. These completed reports and tax payments are due no later than October 31.

Clifford E. Roberts, acting director of the Bureau of Sales and Use Tax, emphasized that all licensees whose total tax for the first quarter of 1957 amounted to more than $600 still must file remittances on a monthly basis. The major purpose of this legislative revision is to assure a monthly flow of revenue into the Commonwealth treasury.

Recommendations Are Issued For Hunters in State

With the approach of hunting season the Game Commission counsels outdoorsmen to consider these recommendations which, acted upon, will assure more pleasure, success and safety when afield with gun.

1. Inspect and field test sporting arms soon. This is a safety measure, and such a check will assure the owner that the guns will function properly when fired at wild game. Just before season gunsmiths are swamped with repair work; the favorite firearm may therefore not be ready in time for "the opener". A gun in good working order assures more pleasure and greater success afield.

2. Try out your rifle and sharpen your eye on a range and fire the shotgun at clay birds to regain coordination and timing. Take a youngster, or an inexperienced older, along so that he will learn how to shoot safely and correctly. Afterward, go out for woodchucks or crows, having pleasure with your practice.

3. Condition yourself for hunts later. Don't over-exert; know your limitations. Take hikes over the countryside, beginning with short trips. Gradually increase the distance, doing some reasonable hill climbing. Sore feet and cramped muscles take the pleasure out of hunting. According to the record, the heart also is worthy of consideration, in early conditioning and during hunts in season.

4. The hunter whose eyesight is not sharp at average shooting distance would be wise to have his vision checked, following which corrective measures should be taken well in advance of season. Not only will the ability to see distinctly improve hunting success, it could prevent a mistake shooting.

5. One of the best times to continue or renew friendly relations with landowners, the hunter's hosts in fall, is during summer. Visits to favorite shooting localities will also acquaint sportsmen with changes in the game situation since the previous year. Such surveys could mean greater hunting success when the hunting season rolls around.

The "Miss Korea of 1957" who was entered in the "Miss Universe" contest at Long Beach, Calif., is named Miss Okay Park. She is 22, pretty and O.K.

Pennsy Places in Use an Important Electronic Device

An electronic device which within two minutes will measure and write its own "report" on the rate of locomotive engine wear by sampling lubricating oil has been adopted by the Pennsylvania Railroad to control its preventive maintenance work on diesel locomotives.

Use of the new device, known as a "Quantometer," is expected by the railroad's research men to promote better engine performance and lower maintenance costs. It reacts to minute quantities of metal in the oil—as little as one or two millionths of a gram of metal in a gram of oil—and automatically records the amount found, according to M. A. Pinney, PRR engineer of tests at Altoona, where the device has been installed.

The practice of checking oil samples for tell-tale amounts of metal is not new, Pinney said, but the Quantometer permits a marked speed-up and improvement in their detection. Samples from each road diesel locomotive are sent in to the Altoona laboratories where they are now testing an average of 130 samples a day, he said.

The quick disclosure of wear conditions which could not be discovered by ordinary inspection permits repair or replacement of parts before failures develop. This "stitch in time," Pinney explained, saves road delays and avoids the higher costs of major repair work.

Until the new device was installed, he said, it was necessary to burn each oil sample down to an ash and place this ash in an electric arc between two electrodes. The spectrum of light from the arc, which contained wave lengths characteristic of any metals present in the ash, was then recorded on a photographic plate by means of a spectograph. Finally, the spectrum image thus obtained was measured with a densitometer to determine the amount of "wear metals" contained in the sample. This process required about five hours to complete. If results were inconclusive in any given test, it had to be re-run in its entirety.

"In the new device," he said, "the oil sample is burned directly in an electric arc and variations in the light produce corresponding changes in the voltage output of an electronic circuit governing the movement of a recording stylus."

New Bureau Will Help Pennsylvania Teachers

Harrisburg (P)—A new bureau in the Public Instruction Department will try to help teachers keep informed on the subject they teach.

"The bureau will be a clearing house for the latest information about the courses of study and teaching techniques being used in our schools," said Paul Glatzer, director of the educational field services bureau. He explained that the department has learned a "number of teachers lack essential knowledge of the things they teach."

He said this was particularly true in the elementary arithmetic and Pennsylvania history fields. The bureau will maintain a team of experts to help school districts.

Sweater Fashions for College
There's a Type For Every Girl
BY GAILE DUGAS
NEA Women's Editor
NEW YORK—(NEA)—There's a sweater type for everybody in the female population, starting with wee tots and working right through the Thelma Ritter cardigan and the glamor girl stuff.
There's the country look, the very fancy evening look, the campus look and the sophisticated city look.
This fall, you can pretty well pick the length, type, color, weight and weave that you favor to say nothing of the stuff from which the sweater's knitted.
The sweater turns into a costume top for autumn. It's worn as an overblouse. It's a neat little jacket. When it gets fancy, it's touched with velvet, embroidery, lace, satin or chiffon.
We show here two sweaters utterly unlike each other, yet both sound fashion. For campus wear, there's the bulky cable-knit wool cardigan in white, knipped at the waistline. It can be worn day or evening.
Double-breasted jacket with brass buttons (right) is in a sleeve and notched lapel collar, heavy ribbed-stitched wool. It has the longer length, longer both designs are by Rosanna.

Drought Conditions Reported In Most State Farming Areas

Harrisburg (AP) — "Very dry" farmland conditions prevail in most of Pennsylvania despite scattered showers that fell last week. The weekly federal-state crop-weather summary reported that "more moisture is needed."

"Farmers in many sections are constructing temporary silos to take care of the corn crop that was expected for grain," the survey showed. It described the week's rain as too little and too late to save corn crops in many sections of the state.

In many communities farmers are chopping up the damaged crops for winter feed.

Rainfall records showed that most reporting stations received at least a trace during the week. However, the highest total was 1/4 of an inch at Blairsville. Other totals were all below two-tenths of an inch.

"New seedlings of hay are spotted. Alfalfa seedling is about 10 days behind schedule in most areas."

"Dry conditions exist in northern Pennsylvania and the late potato crop was at a standstill. The early crop is of good quality and fair size. Low yields of late potatoes are expected."

"Quality of tomatoes for fresh market and processing fair, but size and yield are small.

"Late varieties of peaches are behind schedule in ripening because of dry weather. Rain in the southeast last week helped sizing of late peaches and apples but additional moisture is required."

"Plowing for planting winter grains was slowed in some areas by dry fields. Last week's rain aided farmers in southern counties in preparing fields for winter grains and many farmers in the area reported planting during the week."

Junior Dairy Show Will Attract Over 200 Dairy Heifers

Over 200 top 4-H and FFA dairy heifers from Northwestern Penna. will be assembled at the Crawford County Fairgrounds on September 7, for the first Northwestern Pennsylvania Junior Dairy Show. The show is a joint affair with 4-H and FFA members competing in their respective divisions.

Nine judges have been scheduled to place the entries in the Type, Showmanship, and Fitting phases of the show. Six show rings will be running simultaneously, as a means of expediting the operation of the show.

Animals receiving blue ribbons at this show will be eligible to compete in the State Junior Dairy Show at the Farm Show building in Harrisburg, on September 19. The District Show is largely supported by donations from business men and bankers in the district, as well as State funds appropriated for State and District Junior Dairy Shows.

The Crawford County 4-H Council will sponsor a dairy bar for the convenience of exhibitors and persons attending the show. Meals will be served at the show by the Cochran Grange.

4-H leaders, extension personnel, and vocational agricultural supervisors responsible for planning the show invite the public to attend this first Junior District Dairy Show. William C. McCullough, vocational agricultural supervisor in Crawford County; and J. F. Pound, Crawford County Associate agricultural agent are managing the FFA and 4-H divisions of the show, respectively.

Kane Is Concerned Over Losing One of Its Main Industries

Kane—The Holgate Brothers Co. manufacturers of brush handles for nearly 70 years and a mainstay in the industrial life in Kane for 73 years since coming here in 1884 is expected to close by the end of this week.

According to James C. Leslie, president, the plant will be put on the auction block during September if no other sale is completed before that time.

Efforts of local and area men to purchase the plant as a going concern have failed and all remaining brush handles and lumber have been disposed of by the management. If a purchaser is able to secure the buildings and machinery when it is put up for sale at auction, it could be continued as a woodworking industry. Otherwise some new industry may be able to convert some or all of the buildings for other purposes.

The plant has operated continuously since its start in 1889 near Philadelphia.

Closing of the plant will be a terrible blow to local and area residents. Nearly 300 employees, some on the rolls of the company for more than 25 years, have been laid off and but a token force remains at the plant to finish up last minute details before the plant closes. Many of the employees are beyond the age of securing work in other industries and will face a bleak outlook after unemployment benefits cease.

1927 Dragon Team To Be Feted At Informal Smoker; Only 50 Tickets To Be Sold for Affair

Sports Boosters annual Smoker and Homecoming this year will host and toast the roaring Dragon eleven of 1927 which romped through the season with a 10-win, 2-loss record, upsetting a couple of supposed gridiron titans en route.

The Smoker will be held Friday evening, September 27 at Kalbfus Rod and Gun Club. In a departure from previous procedure, this Smoker will be an informal fish, chip and refreshment affair and Milt Dahler, Booster president, reminds all who wish to attend that only 50 tickets are available on a strict first-come, first-serve basis.

Homecoming game will be the Dragon's first home game of the year with Titusville on Saturday, Sept. 28 at War Memorial Field. There the famed "Angie" Bevevino, team captain and quarterback, will lead the 1927 Dragons through a few rusty rudiments after he and fellow teammates are introduced.

The men who comprised Coach "Jake" Leidig's fighting squad of that year include: Karl Timm, tackle; Fritz Mack, fullback; "Joey" Brindis, halfback; Harold Patchen, guard; Abe McCormack, guard; Bob Schindler, alternated between fullback and tackle; Kelly Mowbray, guard WHS Coach Joe Massa, end; Jess Laurer, tackle; Ray Owen, guard; Willie Winevino, quarterback; Aelred Gray, halfback; Lloyd Sager, center; Art Christensen, end.

Two other members of the great 1927 eleven have passed onto that Golden Gridiron beyond. They are Bob Gaffner, an end and back, and Kerm Cuthbertson, guard and tackle.

Assisting Coach Leidig with the team that toppled overdogs Bradford and Erie East were Harry Hutchings and Stanley Stroup.

Joe Massa is currently undertaking the difficult task of contacting all his former teammates and soliciting pictures and biographical data from them, besides dispatching an invitation for them to be present at the occasion. Currently he is still trying to find someone who can help him locate Abe McCormack, Jess Laurer, Kel-

McGinley Is Riding On Top of Heap at Skyline Speedway

Sugar Grove — Johnny "Madman" McGinley, the Clarion, ace stock car driver, is definitely riding on top of the heap, at Skyline Speedway. In the last four weeks, he has had two feature seconds, in a row and two consecutive wins. Last Sunday, he won a heat race and the 50 lap Championship, and then went on to perform with Johnny Hardinger's Crash Kings. This veteran, and apparently tireless driver, stands a very good chance of making it three wins, in a row, but will find very stiff competition in Dean Layfield, of Wellsboro, N. Y., who finished second last Sunday. He lost that one by a headlight and could very easily find that little extra push this week. Paul Wilson, of Jamestown, N. Y., led the fifty lap for 48 laps, only to crash on the last lap, and will be out there trying to break that hard luck streak.

Move of New York Giants Still Far From Being Cinched

New York (AP)—The announced move of the New York Giants to San Francisco was tossed around again yesterday. While the team was busy at Pittsburgh, a banker, a landlord, a mayor and a lawyer provided the action.

But as of today, the official decision still stood. The Giants will play their National League baseball games in San Francisco starting in 1958, unless an unforeseen barrier develops.

Here's how yesterday's play went: Jay Coogan, the men to whom Giants' president Horace Stoneham pays the rent, said he had been advised that the deal for the transfer of the club "cannot come to fruition," as it is presently set up.

Coogan said he was relaying the information from an unidentified San Francisco banker. Coogan quoted the banker as saying the deal could not possibly be completed because it would place too much of a financial burden on the taxpayers of the city.

In San Francisco, Mayor George Christopher said "There is no question in our minds whatever about the validity of this city's plans to finance a stadium for the Giants. I invite anyone who has any doubts about it to come out openly and say so."

Engle Reports His Nittany Lions Are Making Progress

University Park (AP) — Rip Engle, Penn State football coach, has conceded that the guard and tackle positions represent his foremost problems in building the Nittany Lions 1957 team.

Engle said he was generally pleased by the physical condition of his 45-man squad, but quickly added the shortage at guard and tackle would slow down preparations for the season's opener against Pennsylvania.

The search for new talent began the first day in camp and under serious consideration was the transfer of Andy Stynchula, 20-pound Latrobe sophomore, from end to tackle. Five returning lettermen furnish the needed depth in both terminal positions.

Only lettered tackle in camp is Bill Wehmer, elongated junior, who played 149 minutes as a member of the second unit last year. Only other tackles with playing time to their credit and Joe Bohart, of Tarentum, 44, minutes, and Frank Urban, of Woodbury, N. J., 42 minutes.

At guard, Captain Joe Sabol, of Shamokin, and Ritchie McMillen, of Beaver Falls, both won their monograms a year ago as members of the second unit in Engle's two-platoon system. Willard Bull Smith, of New Castle, a letter winner in 1955, also is back after a year's absence. Skippy Steilfox, of Sunbury, with 43 minutes, is still another returnee.

Sophomores represent the main hope in both positions. The first-year tackles, all big, are Charles Janerette, of Philadelphia; Tom Muirney, of Ambridge, and Bill Perry, of Ithaca, N. Y. At guard, the sophomore hopes are Sam Stellatella, of Nutley, N. J., Frank Korbin, of Vestaburg and Dan Maddigan, of Munhall.

Engle, who lost three guards and three tackles via graduation, was frank to admit that he was in pretty good shape elsewhere along the line and also in the backfield but that without tackles and guards he would find it hard to put two units together.

"The two-unit system worked so well for us last year that I'd like to give it another try," Engle explained. "It's amazing how much better a player will do if he knows he is going to be relieved sooner or later. That way, he never lets up, never spares himself."

Record Number of Boys Take Part in Hot Stove Activities

Hot Stove officials, headed by League President Harry Wooster, were lavish in their praise this past week to the numerous managers, coaches, umpires, sponsors and just plain "rooters" who contributed to the finest season yet.

This year a record number of boys played excellent ball for the greatest number of teams yet to participate in the Hot Stove League baseball program. It was a tribute to the many, that children could combine good clean fun with good clean sportsmanship throughout the length of the season.

It concluded, fittingly enough, with team members selecting their finest players to participate in the Kiwanis-sponsored All-Star contests. Now the latest playoff series have been concluded and these are the teams that fielded the best rosters during the year:

Yankees Continue To Keep the Door Open for White Sox by Dropping Another to Boston

By ED WILKS
The Associated Press

Memo to the Chicago White Sox: Don't just stand there, do something!

What more could an American League contender ask than to have the New York Yankees stumbling over every club in sight as late as September?

The Yankees suddenly have found their unbeatable bench unfrocked. The only club they've whipped in the past two weeks was the White Sox.

In their last 17 games, the champs have lost 10 for a .412 pace surpassed in futility only by the cellar chums, Kansas City and Washington. The White Sox after falling 6½ games behind in the Yankee sweep have lost three of six.

The Yankees kept the door open for Chicago again last night. They blew a 3-0 lead, missed a knock-out punch in a ninth-inning rally and finally lost 7-5 in 11 innings to Boston. That left the champs five games ahead of the idle White Sox.

Backs—The No. 1 vote getter, Vince Paczkowski, Coal Twp., to Villanova, Charleroi's Myron Potions to Notre Dame; Dan Jonas of West Scranton to Penn State, Lebanon's Ken Wolfe to Yale.

From the second team, Carnegie's Fred Yustak, a tackle, is at Miami; Guard Wayne Davis of John Harris, at Arizona State; Pottsville's fine center, George Joulvan, has gone to West Point; Backs—Ed Sharrockman, St. Clair, to Cincinnati; Herb Adderly, Northeast Phila, to Michigan State; Swoyersville's Bob Washko to Penn State. Bob Worrell, Centerville, third team choice in the backfield, also has entered Penn State.

Mike Jarmoluk, former pro football star with the Philadelphia Eagles and Chicago Bears, has been named head football coach at Lansdale Catholic High School. Jarmoluk's team opens Sept. 2 with Shenandoah Catholic. . . Penn was the only team in the East with four nominees on the pre-season all-academic football team selected each year by Lester Jordan, SMU tub thumper—Frank Riepl, a straight A student majoring in statistics, chosen at right half with fullbacks Bill Raser and Dave Siskorskie, and co-captain Pete Kiblish, Mahony City, given honorable mention. . . Jim Reynolds, a member of Thiel College's unbeaten 1950 football team, is the new line coach at his alma mater. . . One national magazine lists Penn State 10th and Pitt 15th among the nation's top 1957 football team.

Paul DeBlame, president of the Midwinter Sports Assn. in New Orleans, presented a check for $60 to the Red Cross from the Pitt football team for the disaster fund. The money went to the victims of Hurricane Audrey. Pitt Coach John Michelosen says he doesn't believe in scheduling breathers. Play the best but have equal material for it is unfair to ask a team to play a tough schedule when it does not have an equal chance, says the Pitt coach. . . Ridge Riley, editor of the Penn State Alumni News, predicts a 7-2 season for the Nittany Lions football team. . . For the first time in 81 years of football Penn meets the same opponents in the same order as they appeared on the 1936 football schedule.

By ED CORRIGAN
Forest Hills, N. Y. (AP)—A few more sharp performances when he gets home to Australia and Mal Anderson will be battling United States in the Davis Cup Challenge Round this year.

"I know I'd use him instead of the other guy," observed U. S. Cup captain Billy Talbert today. "You know what you're going to get from him. You don't know what the other guy is going to do."

While Talbert took pains to avoid naming the "other guy," he obviously was referring to Neale Fraser, who has ranged from shaky to downright wretched all season.

Anderson put on another sparkling show yesterday when he gained the quarter-final round of the National Tennis Championship at the expense of second-seeded Dick Savitt. The score was a breathtaking 6-4, 6-3, 6-1, and it took the angular Anderson less than an hour to do the job.

Fraser was eliminated in the second round by unseeded Cliff Mayne.

Budge Patty, Cooper and Cliff Mayne all gained their crackets Tuesday. In addition to Anderson, Vic Seixas of Philadelphia, Luis Ayala of Chile, Herbie Flam of Beverly Hills, Calif., and Sven Davidson of Sweden moved along yesterday.

Former Champion Fullmer on Drive To Regain Crown

West Jordan, Utah (AP)—Former middleweight champion Gene Fullmer opened a campaign to regain his crown immediately following his bruising unanimous decision over Chico Vejar last night.

Congressman Asks President To Ban Segregated Sports

Pittsburgh (AP)—Rep. James G. Fulton (R-Pa) urges President Eisenhower to ban all U. S. military school, academy and service teams from participating in segregated sports events.

In a telegram to the president, Fulton specifically asked that Army be ordered not to play its scheduled football game with Tulane at New Orleans No. 16.

The Congressman said yesterday he based his protest on a law passed by the Louisiana legislature in 1956 that prohibits interracial sports participation and integrated seating.

At West Point, Lt. Gen. Garrison H. Davidson, superintendent of the Military Academy, refused comment on Fulton's wire. He released a copy of a telegram to Fulton explaining that the Department of the Army had granted permission to proceed with the Army-Tulane game.

Presidential Press Secretary James C. Hagerty said he knew nothing about Fulton's wire, but an Army spokesman in Washington said there were no plans last night to cancel the game.

Archaeologists working near Dublin have recently unearthed Irish relics as old as 2000 B. C.

Pittsburgh (AP)—Sidetracked in his last outing, the Pittsburgh Pirates' Bob Friend has resumed his winning ways in a late season comeback.

Yielding just seven hits, Friend blanked the New York Giants 2-0 last night as the Pirates became the last team in the majors to post their 50th victory of the season.

Dick Groat boosted his average to .321 and drove in both runs. Each time it was Gene Fullmer who did the scoring.

It was Friend's 3rd shutout and 11th victory of the year against 17 setbacks.

Speaking of Sports . . .

Brooklyn Dodgers second baseman Junior Gilliam missed his first game since July 2, 1956, when he was forced to sit out Tuesday night's game with the Phillies because of an upset stomach. Gilliam had played 199 consecutive games. Third base coach Billy Her-man also was on the bench for the first time Tuesday night with an injured back. Manager Walter Alston was in the third base coaching box for the first time this year.

DRIVE CAREFULLY!

ROLLING TO THE GROCERY STORE—Adopting industrial technique to the job of harvesting the largest tomato crop in the world, pickers dump tomatoes onto a conveyor belt which carries them to the central unit of the machine. The unique "harvester" was built for the B. & L. Farm Company, which has some 8,000 acres of tomato plants on an 18-mile-long strip in the Homestead-Redland region near Miami, Fla. As the tomatoes roll toward the center they are graded and sized, then packed in temporary field crates. It takes 107 pickers to satisfy the "appetite" of the monster device, which has 165-foot conveyor belts on each side of the central unit.

SAFETY INNOVATION—Grinning Englishman Sidney Hughes, Royal Air Force flying officer, poses with the ejection seat which catapulted him from a jet flying a few feet above the ground at 120 m.p.h. The test, which took place at the Patuxent, Md., Naval Air Test Center, was the first ground-level ejection of a human being in the United States. The demonstration clinched Navy acceptance of an American-modified version of the British Martin-Baker ejection device.

Sen. Mahary for Open Sessions of the G. S. A.

Harrisburg (P)—Sen. Rowland D. Mahary, a Republican member of the executive board of the General State Authority, believes other GOP members would support a move to open executive meetings to the press.

"I had the question come up for a vote," the Senate leader said in a statement yesterday, "I am certain the majority, at least the Republicans present, would have voted to open the executive session." Mahary took issue with Gov. Leader who told his news conference last week that he personally favored ending the closed sessions but that the majority of the board did not agree with him.

Armed Guards

be best if you turn around and walk the other way".

The Negroes complied.

The ever-changing racial picture here took a new turn in the past 12 hours as Faubus charged that the federal government was plotting to arrest him.

President Eisenhower, now vacationing at Newport, R. I., said Faubus' allegation was "not correct."

The governor was not immediately available for comment.

James C. Hagerty, White House press secretary, said, "There has been no discussion of Little Rock or Washington or any place else" concerning an arrest of the governor.

Today Hagerty also said in Newport that there is no truth to what he called another report "to the effect that U. S. marshals or their deputies have been ordered to escort Negro children to school" here.

Troops here this morning tried to break up interviews Ben Fine of the New York Times was holding with the crowd.

Up to 70 armed Guardsmen—under the command of Gov. Faubus and not federal military authorities—have remained on the campus since Monday.

In his telegram to the President last night, Faubus urged Eisenhower to take action that would halt the threat of "interference of federal agents" in the question of whether Negroes and whites should attend classes together" at the Little Rock high school.

Indianapolis (P)—The Marriott Hotel has a new short-wave radio system to keep its bellhops on the hop.

Palmer Suddaby, general supervisor, said the system includes 28 lapel receivers and four sending stations powerful enough to reach personnel 30 feet outside the hotel. "It should speed up our room service several hundred per cent," Suddaby said.

BLOOM SCORES LEADER

EMBEZZLEMENT CHARGED

Pittsburgh (P)—A 27-year-old Butler bank clerk will face Federal grand jury action on charges she embezzled $4,000 from a branch of Mellon National Bank and Trust Co. Mrs. Leona Jayne Angert was arrested yesterday in Butler by FBI agents. She waived a hearing at an arraignment before U. S. Commissioner Alex McNaughton. The commissioner set bond at $1,000 but gave Mrs. Angert until tomorrow to post it.
